

Ana Mar Fernández Pasarín is an Associate Professor in Politics and Public Administration (Profesora Titular) at the UAB and an Associate Researcher at Sciences Po Paris (Observatory of European Institutions, www.cee.sciences-po.fr). Between 2009 and 2015, she was also vice-dean for economic affairs (Faculty of Political Science and Sociology, UAB). She has given postgraduate courses on European studies, Comparative Politics, Public Policies Analysis and Consular Diplomacy at the University of Bologna, the ITAM (México), the IBEI (Barcelona), the IUOG, the INAP, the CEPC (Madrid) and the Diplomatic School of Armenia. She has been research fellow at Sciences Po Paris, Mannheim Universität, the Université Catholique de Louvain, the Centre for European Policy Studies and the Université Libre de Bruxelles. She is member of the scientific team of the Observatory of European Institutions (OIE) of Sciences Po Paris and the scientific coordinator of the EUGOV Consolidated Research Group (<http://blogs.uab.cat/eugov/>).

Main research areas:

Her main research areas are European institutional dynamics, with specific reference to the EU presidential system and comitology procedures. She is currently coordinating the EUCOM Project 'Democratisation of the European Union and regulatory decision-making: a quantitative analysis of comitology' (UAB/Sciences Po Paris) funded by the Spanish Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness (2014-2016. CSO2013-43684-P).
